POMPON DAHLIAS.

These little bouquet dahlias are becoming more popular each year. They are perfect balls from one inch to two inches in diameter and come in all colors. For table decoration they cannot be excelled, keeping for days in water. They can be planted as close as eighteen inches apart, require no staking, disbudding or special attention.

Price for named varieties assorted, per dozen.....$3.50
If wanted singly, 50 cents each. Six for $2.00.

COLLECTIONS.

When selection of varieties is left to me, I will furnish collections of ten tubers, each one different, all selected stock labeled with name, at the rate of 10 tubers for $5.00, $10.00 and $15.00, and give extra value in this way.

I extend to all a cordial invitation to visit my garden during the blooming season.

DAHLIA STAKES.

Made from $1\frac{1}{4} \times 1\frac{1}{4}$ inch cypress, six feet long, pointed one end. Planed smooth on all four sides. Give them a good coat of paint and they will last a life time.

Price at garden, not painted, 20 cents each.
